“TOP 10 TIPS FOR GETTING AHEAD IN YOUR CAREER AND LIFE”

Hardy Wine Company, a leading employer in the Adelaide market, recently invited Nicole Underwood, General Manager of Entrée Recruitment to speak to their internal networking group. This initiative has been designed to foster internal working relationships, to assist staff to develop their own networking skills as well as to hear from external presenters. Nicole spoke on Wednesday the 13th of June at the picturesque Reynella site to approximately fifty staff on her top ten tips for getting ahead in your career in life.

Nicole, with over ten years experience in the recruitment industry, provided a first hand insight into tips for promotion based on her experiences with growing up in Barossa, learning from her career mistakes as well as practical tips to implement to reduce stress and take control of your life.

Such comments included:

“I thought Nicole gave a very pleasant, light and informative presentation yesterday. Her tips were simple, yet effective, and relayed in an easy to understand and humorous manner.”

“I have personally adopted (and put into place) at least one of her tips already, which has not so much changed what I do, but the way I do it and my perception of my work. Nicole also gave me inspiration to continue to strive towards goals in my life and career. A great presentation overall! ”

“I personally loved the presentation and have been thinking about some things that I can start straight away that does not take too much planning! Overall, fantastic!”

”Best one that they have been to so far... already considering how to implement some strategies that Nicole discussed”

“Wow - she has achieved so much at such a young age - very inspiring”
