Investing in you: Getting ahead - tips for promoting yourself!

Nicole Underwood from Entrée Recruitment shares her experiences

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 16 2006 | ALCHEMY ROOM | ADELAIDE ENTERTAINMENT CENTRE

Last year, we looked at a number of successful ways to "invest in you". This year, we plan to build and grow the theme of investing in you, by offering a series of sessions that deliver useful ideas and sound practical methods.

To kick off 2006, Nicole Underwood will share with you the ten easy steps you can adopt to help you get ahead in your career and in life. Nicole gets right to the heart of the matter, so you'll leave the breakfast brimming with confidence and exciting new skills, ready to tackle anything! (Door prize too – don't forget to bring your business card.)

A graduate of Uni SA and finalist in both the Telstra Business Women Awards and Young Achiever Awards, Nicole Underwood is the General Manager of Entrée Recruitment which she established in 2001 and has subsequently built to be one of Adelaide's most respected and successful recruitment companies. Under her leadership, Entrée Recruitment has grown to provide some of Adelaide's top corporate with market leading recruitment services. Nicole has created opportunities for herself during her career through broadening her thinking, taking risks and having confidence to give things a go, whilst learning from her mistakes along the way.
